TEAMSTERS REACH TENTATIVE AGREEMENT WITH AIR CANADA

(WASHINGTON) – Today, the Teamsters Union announced a tentative agreement with U.S.-based Air Canada Teamster represented employees that improves wages, benefits and job protections for the entire group. The agreement will be released to all affected members shortly. The ratification process will take place after the members have an opportunity to review the new terms.

Founded in 1903, the International Brotherhood of Teamsters represents 1.4 million hardworking men and women throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico, including more than 80,000 workers in every craft and class of the airline industry.
